

Those of us who subscribe to XM radio are pleased to have this information about travel and weather when we are on the road. You will be doing a great dis-service to those of us who depend on this information when traveling by car. It will also help us avoid possible accidents and traffic tie-ups in different cities and highways. This IS a way to save lives. Pay attention, please.Allison Galt-Hall